Summary: On June 30, 2004, Garith Krause of the Merced Irrigation District (MID) met with Cmmr. Lynch in San Francisco. Also present were Michael Campbell, advisor to Cmmr. Lynch, and Ken Robbins and Dan L. Carroll, outside counsel to MID. Written material (attached to the notice) was used. MID representatives explained that, as a matter of equity, new Greenfield customers of MID should not be required to pay for services they do not receive, especially when they are taking power within MID's boundaries. MID representatives explained that at this point MID's rates remain competitive with PG&E's rates, but that would be impacted if Greenfield customers are required to pay cost responsibility surcharges in the neighborhood of two and one half cents per kilowatt hour. MID representatives also explained that PG&E's activities with respect to Greenfield customers are clearly for the purpose of fighting competition.
